

Olafur Eliasson Exhibition - Presence

QAGOMA

Thursday
February 19, 2026

Icelandic-Danish artist Olafur Eliasson takes us on a multi-sensory journey that engages our sense of perception through the use of light and shapes — from suspending a rainbow in a veil of mist to a spatial installation that unfurls ever-changing reflections of light. Eliasson's artistic practice is grounded in the distinctive forms of his home, Iceland.

WHEN: Thursday, February 19, 2026 at 10am

MEET: GOMA - at the front door

COST: CONCESSION $29.00
MEMBER $27.00

Contact Susan Wright at wright.se@bigpond.com or 0403 910 728

Many who have visited the exhibition find the experiences awe-inspiring, beautiful and emotionally uplifting.

His art sparks curiosity and encourages deeper reflection on our place in the world.

Viewers are often enveloped in new sensory experiences, from monochromatic yellow light to cool water. It challenges your senses.